

Srivathsa Jagalur

- Working as senior principal engineer at Autoliv's global engineering 4.0 team.
- An experienced professional in advanced technologies and engineering strategies.
- Leading research projects focused on occupant safety for future transportation.
- 20+ years in the field of product design and development.
- Expertise spans virtual validation, automotive safety systems, mathematical modeling, statistical methods, optimization, machine learning, applied artificial intelligence.
- A mechanical engineer with advanced degrees from IIT Madras in computational engineering and BITS Pilani in data science.